

“Henro” Pilgrimage Tour in Shikoku 3 days

JPY28,200 per person for twin use

The henro, a walking route that takes in 88 temples on Japan's southern island of Shikoku, is not only for traditional pilgrims. It also attracts young Japanese interested in boosting their fitness or their spiritual energy at the “power spots” along the way. And more and more foreign visitors are coming to walk the henro too. Since ancient times, there are ways to call "Seven Temples Mairi" to visit the temple from the 71st Buddhist temple to No. 77 Buddhist temple in one day. If you visit these seven temples in one day, you can gain the same benefits as having visited the 88 temples.
